

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Natalie Rowe Installed as 2023 Michigan Realtors® President

September 2022: Natalie Rowe was installed as 2023 President of the Michigan Realtors® during The Convention in Grand Rapids, MI.

Natalie started her Real Estate career as an office admin in 1999 and in 2006, earned her Real Estate license. In 2016 she earned her Associate Brokers License, just before becoming the Broker/Owner of RE/MAX Advantage in 2017. Natalie's office is located in Portage and is currently home to 30 REALTORS® and 3 office admins. Throughout her career, she has served on most of the committees at the Greater Kalamazoo Association of REALTORS®. She also served as a Board Member and an Officer. She was elected to serve as District 6 Director for Michigan REALTORS® in 2017, before being elected as Treasurer-elect in 2020. In addition, Natalie serves as a NAR Director and was recently appointed to the Broker Engagement Council. Outside of Real Estate, Natalie serves as the Treasurer of Kalamazoo Area Runners and is a champion runner for Team Red White & Blue and the American Red Cross.

Michigan Realtors® is an integrated advocacy and communications force for the real estate professionals of our State.
